The four long theme entries are “following directions”. For example, STEVENWRIGHT begins across, with NW entered into a single square; the rest of the entry is then written to the northwest, ending in that corner of the grid.